

Local Government Performance Monitoring: red tape or continuous improvement?

Join key personnel from the Essential Services Commission (Chairman Dr Ron Ben-David and Director Regulation, Andrew Chow), to hear about their Inquiry into Performance Monitoring Frameworks for Local Governments:

- Myths & realities
- Where is the process at?
- What have local governments and others told the Commission?

This LEF is being held for councillors, council officers and individual members and groups interested to hear how life for local governments may change under the new frameworks.
