

A Great Debate: community input in planning decisions - help or hindrance?

Is it important for communities to be consulted and heard? Are we consulting effectively on the big planning challenges of our day? What planning outcomes are we getting? Are these outcomes constrained or informed by community input? Come along and hear a topical and entertaining debate.

Thursday 3 June 2010

VLGA, 60 Leicester Street Carlton

6pm: Drinks, food & networking 7pm: Debate starts

FOR

Cr Heinz Kreutz, VLGA President

Dr Clare Mouat, Urban Planning Lecturer Melbourne University

Cr Geoff Lake, ALGA President

Against

David Vorchheimer, President Planning Institute Australia (Vic)

Rob McGauran, Director McGauran Giannini Soon Architects

Tony De Domenico, Executive Director UDIA (Vic)

Participant Biographies and Register Online at

<http://LEF.vlga.org.au>

Numbers strictly limited so get in early! Register online or call 03 9349 7999 or email vlga@vlga.org.au