

Victorian Local Governance Association Biography

Cr Rose Iser, President

Cr Rose Iser (LLB/BA, Dip. Ed., M.Ed.) lives in Flemington and has represented the South Ward of Moonee Valley City Council since 2007. She previously worked as a secondary teacher and writer and is a qualified lawyer.

As a Councillor, Rose has initiated improvements to environmental management, open space and consultation and communication practices - particularly with Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) communities. Cr Iser represents local communities on transport advocacy groups and numerous environmental committees. She is also involved in strategic planning for the Flemington Public Housing community and advocacy for childcare and children's services.

Rose enjoys running, writing and cycling around Melbourne's bike paths with her two young children.
