The Victorian Local Governance Association

invites you to an informal morning tea to

Celebrate International Human Rights Day

10 - 11.30am Thursday 8 December

60 Leicester Street, Carlton

- ◆ 2011 International Human Rights Day ‘promoting human dignity’
- ◆ 2011 marks the 100th Anniversary of International Women’s Day

The VLGA Board has pleasure in inviting you to mark these occasions at an informal morning tea. Our focus for this year will be on the progress and future of local government and community actions to:

- ◆ Prevent Violence Against Women
- ◆ Promote participation of women in next year’s Local Government Elections, and
- ◆ Uptake of the Victorian Local Government Women’s Charter.

Come along and network with colleagues, and do your bit for International Human Rights Day. Numbers are limited, so please RSVP to vlga@vlga.org.au or (03) 9349 7999.

In the meantime, find out what you can do to mark these occasions as well as White Ribbon Day (November 25) by following our ‘16 Days Of Action’ on our website, each day from 25 November (White Ribbon Day) to 10 December at www.vlga.org.au
