

Building Communities

From challenges to solutions

FRIDAY 5 JULY 2019
WYNDHAM CIVIC CENTRE
45 PRINCES HIGHWAY, WERRIBEE

To be opened by Kaushaliya Vaghela MP, Member for Western Metropolitan

This one day symposium will apply a human-centred lens to planning, exploring several topics including:

- Integrated service and facility planning for precincts
- Optimising assets to deliver community outcomes
- Embedding robust governance processes and structures to sustain change

COST

$77 (incl. GST)

Participants from VLGA member councils/NGAA members/
Committee for Melbourne members

$154 (incl. GST)

Participants from non-member councils/non-member organisations

PRESENTED BY

HOSTED BY

wyndhamcity

SUPPORTING PARTNERS

Building Communities

From challenges to solutions

FRIDAY 5 JULY 2019

9:30AM Arrival and registration

10:00AM Welcome to the City of Wyndham by Mayor Mia Shaw.
Symposium opening by Kaushaliya Vaghela MP, Member for Western Metropolitan

10:30AM Keynote address:
“Building communities and planning for growth”
Alix Rhodes, Executive Director - Outer Melbourne, Victorian Planning Authority

11:00AM Morning tea

11:30AM Invited presentations:

1. Planning for infrastructure and services in community building -Llewellyn Reynders Strategy and Policy Principal Adviser Infrastructure Victoria
2. From challenges to solutions - developing an integrated strategic framework - Raeph Cumming Director, SocioLogic
3. Implementing an integrated strategic planning framework - Kelly Grigsby, CEO Wyndham City

Q&A facilitated by Stuart Moseley - CEO Victorian Planning Authority

1:00PM Lunch

1:30PM Working roundtables:

1. New precinct planning
2. Embedding a local integrated strategic planning framework
3. Renew, revitalise and reactivate
4. Partnerships