HOW TO RUN AN EFFECTIVE COMMUNITY CAMPAIGN AGAINST POKIES

A  GET INFORMED

1. Get a copy of the planning application from your local council

2. Find out when your council will be making a decision

3. Look at the applications for a license or the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (VCGLR) www.vcglr.vic.gov.au

4. Find out more about existing venues and leases in your area www.vcglr.vic.gov.au

B  GET HELP

1. The Victorian Local Governance Association (VLGA) can talk you through relevant processes and put you in touch with useful partners. info@vlga.org.au or 9349 7999

2. The Gambling Information Resource Office (GIRO) at the Victorian Responsible Gambling Foundation can provide research and data which could help you build your case.

3. VLGA can help you find speakers who have been personally harmed by gambling to talk to your community.

4. The Alliance for Gambling Reform can help you with on-line organising tools and contacts in your area.

There is no cost to access these supports.

C  GET ACTIVE

1. Talk to friends, neighbours, school parents, etc

2. Create a facebook page and get discussion happening on-line

3. Speak to the local paper

4. Find allies

5. Hold a community meeting and build support

D  GET GOING!

1. Put in objections to Council

2. Send submissions into VCLGR contact@vcglr.vic.gov.au or via website

3. Contact councillors and members of parliament

4. Make a community video to document opposition to the pokies application
